THE MAIN EVENT

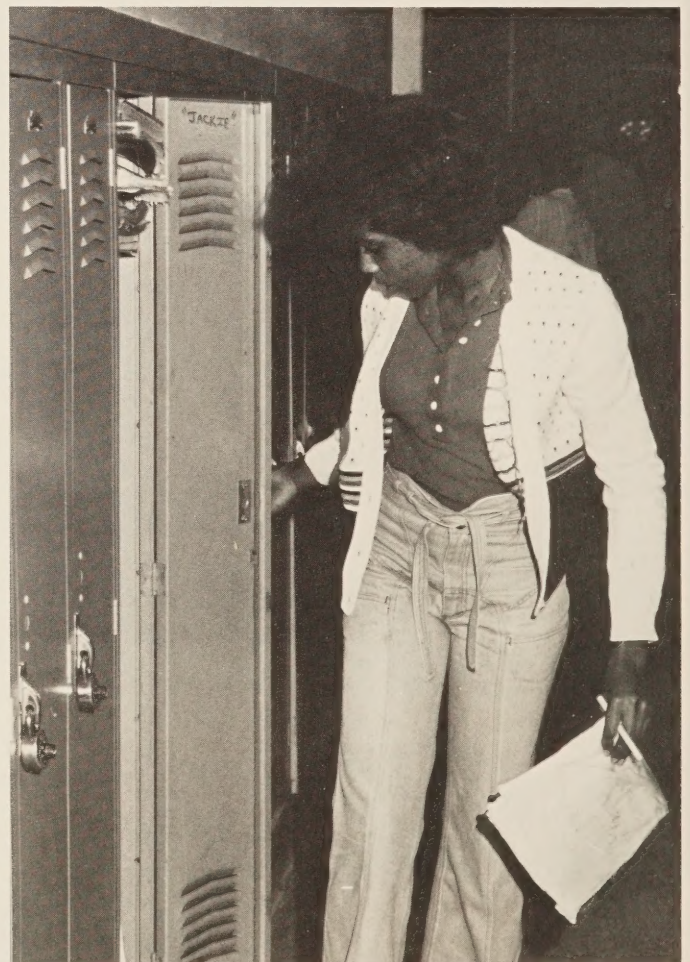

PREVIEWS PREVIEWS PRE

Clockwise: A skit catches the attention of Kelvin "Country" Jordan, Terry Cross, and Preston Dezern. Robin Hagerman does her steno homework during her U.S. history class. Everyone has seen The Ice-cream Lady in this familiar setting. "Teddy Bear" Smith helps Sheila Johnson with her classwork. Feeling that she has left something behind, Edwina Harvey double-checks her locker. An eighth grader, Clarence Jenkins makes up a test.

Faces	8
Organizations	80
Faculty	112
Games Prexies Play	136
Etc., Etc . . .	166

Friendly faces, teachers who care,
Rousing assemblies, exams to bear.
For Prexies - each and every one,
These added up to nothing but fun.

Clockwise: Studying this plant, Samuel Oliver prepares to draw it for Art Class. Boarding the early bus, Michelle Thomas is glad the day is finally over. Cheering practice is an important summer activity for Pattie Yates and Sandra DeBerry. Team captains Tony Burgess and Fernandez Scott shake hands with opposing captains during the Norcom game. Mrs. Fuller enjoys a quiet moment between classes.

Football games, rehearsals for plays,
Cheering practice and long, long days.
Through these glimpses of life at Wilson High,
We proved that the theme "The Main Event" was no lie.

CLIPS CLIPS CLIPS CLIPS

Clockwise: Recordkeeping class is a busy time for Yolanda Wright, Bernice Winfield, Billie Kay Whittaker, and Lisa Corbett. Getting excited during a pep rally is natural for Adrian Mitchell. Roland Elliott and Jerome Grimes work on a project for the boy's home-ect. class. Mark Davis doesn't know it, but Crystal Spindel is playing Peek-a-boo with the camera. During the morning announcements, Pattie Yates reads the Wilson code to the student body.

THE SENIORS

Since the senior class started the year without a penny to its name, money-making projects were a priority. The seniors planned to sell cleanser powder as their first fund-raising activity. Projects planned for the year included taking a senior trip and purchasing a large sign for the front of the school as the class's gift to the school. Mrs. Bryce, the class sponsor, played a vital role in guiding the class of 1980 through the year.

Senior Class Officers: Bobby West, treasurer; Frieda Freeman, vice-president; Mark Davis, president. Missing is Mrs. Bryce, advisor.

SENIORS INFLUENCE UNDERCLASSMEN

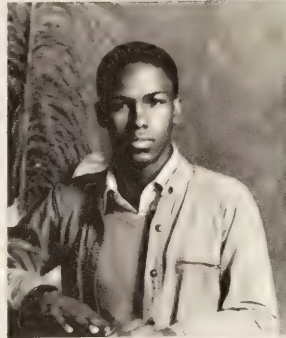

Tony Burgess' pep talk wins the student body's support for the football team.

Without the participation of Seniors, many school activities would not have survived. Seniors were the backbone of most clubs and sports, and many seniors were involved in several activities. Those who worked and didn't have the time to participate directly gave their full support to their involved classmates.

Seniors were involved in all aspects of school life. On any given day, they could be found in the library studying, on the field perfecting their techniques in any number of sports, or rehearsing for plays. They were often busy planning activities, such as assemblies, or heading clubs and committees. Whether they were running relays for the track team or competing in forensic meets, the participation of seniors was vital to the welfare of the school.

JUNIOR'S COME IN STYLE

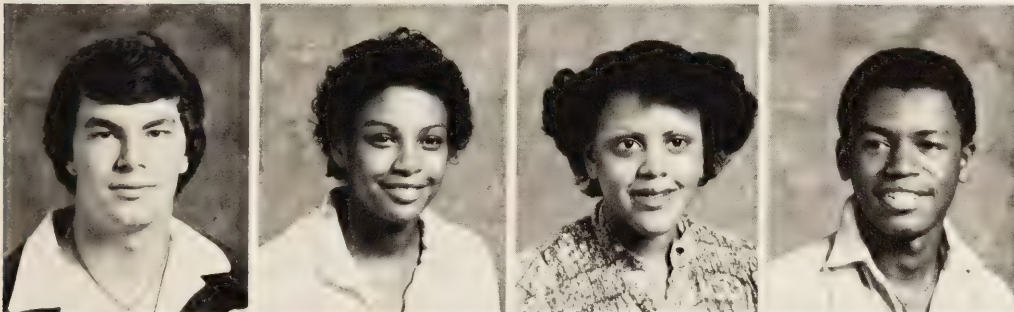

Brenda Anderson applauds the Prexies on their performance.

The Juniors of 1981 support the teams here at Wilson with much style and enthusiasm. A large part of the Junior class performs on various teams, whether it be football, cheering, or basketball. Without these students there would be a large gap in these different organizations.

Most of the 8th graders liked the faculty, although of course a few didn't. The teachers tried to take into consideration that they were new to the school and didn't really know a lot of people. After they had been here for a while and everyone adjusted to school life, the teachers and students got along well.

Two 8th graders decide to take a break and get a drink of water.

The 8th grade class has made friends with alot of the upper classmen. They realize that one day they will become an upperclassmen too. They know that everyone has been a lower classmen. Not knowing the upper-classmen makes it hard for them to think good about them.

ROYAL FAMILY

The 1979-80 Maid of Honor, Flora Cumbo.

The crowd was anxious and the contestants were nervous. Everyone enjoyed the first half of the game as the Fighting Prexies walloped the Mustangs so bad that no one thought they would recover from the locker room for the second half. Then came the drum roll and the Homecoming candidates preceded onto the field. The big moment had arrived. The names of the winners were announced and Sandra DeBerry was crowned queen with Flora Cumbo as her Maid of Honor. Next came the cries of joy and happiness from the winners and their escorts. The Presidents went on to a victorious night and many happy memories came from this one night.

The ICT students have been very active this year with various fund raising projects. These projects enabled the members of this organization to go to Nags Head, N. C. for the District I Leadership Rally. Some other events which the ICT club participated in are the Annual Christmas Brunch at the Circle Restaurant, the Distirct I Contest which was held at Kempsville High and Norfolk Voc. Tech, the State Contest in Roanoke, Va. and to the Cavalier Dinner Playhouse for their Annual Employer-Employee Banquet. So if you are looking for work and fun along the way ICT is for you.

THE STAFF GETS

The Yearbook Staff has worked very hard this year in trying to get the 1979-1980 President out on time. While small in number the effort from the group is a very dedicated one. There is little time for much else until that final deadline is met. Many long hours were spent after school as well as during school to make the yearbook the best one yet. Mrs. Jo Anne Sweet advised the staff this year as well as helping the members think of that difficult caption that just had to be thought of at the last minute.

Robin Davenport works on some body sheets.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club has been very active this year with various fund raising projects. The purpose of these money making projects is to sponsor a trip to Florida this spring. The students in the club are taking either Spanish I or II. They study all aspects of the Spanish life and find that in many ways American life is very much the same.

The French Club is open to any student who is studying or who has studied French. This year the club started the year with increased membership because of having the meetings during class time rather than after school.

Among the projects for the year were: 1) Selling assorted merchandise from Tom-Wat showcase.

2) A school dance

The French Club had dinner at Maison Madeleine, an exclusive French restaurant, travelled to Bush Gardens and attended a French movie.

The Chorus is composed of four different groups. The Men's Chorus and Girls' Chorus are open to anyone. Students must audition to become members of the Mixed Chorus and Presidents and First Ladies. All the groups performed for a special assembly during the Evaluation. In addition, the P&FL's having appeared during assemblies and banquets. They sang Valentines on Feb. 14. Regional and Festival Chorus are two activities that will be participated in during the spring. One of our goals for this year is to increase enrollment in the Chorus. We are using posters and announcements to inform students about Chorus auditions for next year and to make them more aware of what the Chorus does.

Editors, Lynne Bohlman and Pam Rhodes discuss a problem with Mrs. Ward.

Mrs. Ward's journalism class published five issues of The Student, the school newspaper. Under the direction of editor Lynne Bohlman and assistant editor Pam Rhodes, the staff published several special editions, including one featuring Christmas festivities, one for Valentine's Day, and the last one honoring the 1980 graduating class. Advisor Mrs. Ward and assistant Miss Ransom provided excellent leadership for the staff.

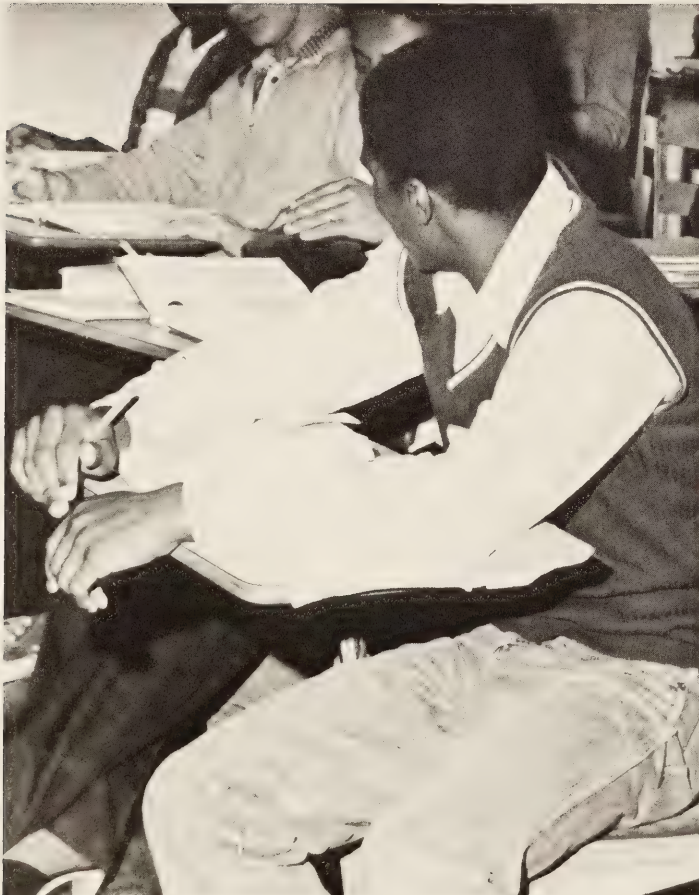

Shirley Haws and Cathy Williams work to get the paper out on time.

The Math Club has really come out of its shell this year. In the past students heard there was a Math Club and that was all. This year they have gotten their act together and have made a very proud name for themselves. They have been busy with fund-raising projects and have done quite well as a result. The students of this club are interested in what they are doing because they enjoy Math. If Math is your bag, maybe you should think about joining the group.

The SCA has had a very prosperous 1979-1980 year. Various fund raising projects have helped many people outside Wilson as well as members of the student body. At Christmas time, the Toy Fund, Joy Fund, and Turkey Fund, were among the many projects which brought competition and joy to Prexies throughout the year. The SCA is always reaching out to help everyone maybe someday it may help you.

Cooperative Office Education, or COE, was a program which allowed students taking advanced business classes such as Steno and Clerk-typing to receive credit for jobs held outside school. Most students involved held secretarial or receptionist's positions after school in offices all over the city. These jobs provided valuable training as well as extra spending money for the students who participated.

Distributive Education Clubs of America are clubs that give students jobs such as sales or service to the public. A chance to gain experience is earned through this course. Two credits are given to students for the year's study, one for the class and one for the job. The coordinators for DECA are Mrs. Barbara Simmons and Mrs. Cathy McCarty. They put a lot of time and effort into finding employment for students in the Club.

FORENSICS

The 1980 forensic team lacked its most important ingredient: participants. Although there were nine categories in forensic competition, only three students entered from Wilson. Junior Marsha Higger, a newcomer to the team, read poetry. Seniors Leslie Marcus and Mark Davis, both veterans of forensic competition, competed in extemporaneous speaking and prose reading, respectively. Leslie Marcus placed first in district competition.

The Modern Dance group of Wilson is composed of young ladies and men who are interested in the art of dance. They performed admirably before the student body in a few assemblies. A lot of hard work and practice went into making the girls limber and preparing them for the competitions and performances which were made throughout the year. The group was coached by Mrs. Stone and Mrs. Clark. These ladies helped the members of the dance group develop the grace and originality which is a vital part of this art. A lot of the participants plan to continue with dance throughout high school and maybe on into later life.

'LAST DANCE'

The theme for the Prom was "Last Dance." This was a happy moment but also a sad one for the graduating Seniors. It was a night full of surprises. The Seniors received mugs and glasses as a departing gift from the Juniors.

Everyone was entertained by the Artisticks and Dr. Do - It. As it neared midnight and the crowd diminished the Seniors looked back on their fond memories of Woodrow Wilson as they walked out the door.

There seems to be a new spirit of friendliness and co-operation at Wilson this year. Perhaps the preparation for the Ten Year Evaluation and the conduct of this important activity has created new interest in the school. Perhaps it is because this year's senior class represents the first group of graduates who entered this school as eighth graders. Perhaps it is the outstanding football team which set a recent record in building opponents scoreless thru 8 games. Maybe it is due to the pride from scoring above the average in competency testing last year. What ever the reason, it is always nice to see increased school pride and higher achievement by our students. The people who served on our visiting committee all remarked about the fine impression our students made on them. We hope that we can continue to work towards new standards, always setting our goals on higher marks. Certainly, to prepare ourselves for what appears to be a difficult time for our nation, we cannot afford to gain less than we should from the high school years. Certainly, also, to maintain the outstanding traditions of this great school, we cannot afford to give less than our best while we are under her roof. That is our challenge, and one that everyone connected with the school seems willing to accept.

THE LITERARY GUILD

The English Department of Woodrow Wilson High School strives to give each student the essential background to communicate effectively with his fellow citizens. This is accomplished through teaching literature, composition, and grammar in such a manner that it provides for the great diversity of ability. Electives in journalism, speech, and drama are also offered. Preparation for the state evaluators enabled us to make an in - depth study of ourselves, to assess our present program, and to make definite recommendations for improvement. Most of the recommendations coming from the committee were recommendations which we had made ourselves. We will work towards providing a grammar test for all of the studies and providing more materials for students who need remedial work in reading and writing. We will also strive to up grade our program of electives.

The Social Studies Department faculty is concerned with helping students to come to an understanding of the privileges and responsibilities that living in a Democratic society places on them. Our curriculum is designed to help them learn about our culture and other world cultures, past and present by applying their contributions to a civilized world. Our ten year evaluation has helped to take an honest look at ourselves; what we have been in the past and our goals for the future. The Evaluators found us to be a pretty healthy school but they did recommend that the members of the department strive to increase communications among teachers to benefit the students. Hopefully we are all a little richer after this great endeavor.

Miss Lester's classes had a party at Christmas time to which a few administrators and teachers were invited to try out the girls' cooking skills. All went well as planned. There is also a boy's Home Etc. Class taught here at Wilson. The young men sometimes do a better job at being chefs than the girls. But both try just as hard. FOOTBALL TEAM SHUTS OUT 8 OF 9 OPPONENTS

Wilson's 1979 football team posted an outstanding eight shutout season. The Presidents started the shutout streak by holding Western Branch out of the end zone for four plays from the one yard line; they defeated the Bruins 16-0. The following week Wilson ended an eight year jinx by beating Churchland 27-0. Homecoming 1979 came against Manor and what a game it was. Wilson scored 26 first half points and finished with a 36-0 victory. From this point on the Presidents were the only unscored upon team in the state, and carried the motto the "UNTEAM" which stands for unbeaten, untied, and unscored on. Wilson next defeated cross town rival Norcom. In a big game with Indian River Wilson came out victorious 17-0. After a tough 7-0 win over Deep Creek, Wilson couldn't hold onto the ball as they played Oscar Smith. That outcome was 0-0. Playing in the Turkey Bowl Wilson Posted a shutout 44-0. In a big showdown game with unbeaten Great Bridge before 14,000 fans the streaks came to an end. Two costly mistakes led to Wildcat scores and Wilson lost 12-7. Wilson came on to dominate the All- Star selections by taking eight positions on the all Southeastern District Team. They were Jim Cary, tackle, Fernandez Scott, Fullback, Cliff Gainey, defensive end, Kelvin Jordan, tackle, Tony Burgess, linebacker, Melvin Jones, defensive back, and Glen Pizzanello, punter and kicker.

J.V. SEASON INDICATES FUTURE VARSITY SUCCESS

Ronald Collins gains yardage against Cradock.

Displaying a lot of hope for future Varsity squads the J.V. football team ended their season with a 4-3 record.

The Defense set up a stone wall in the front with standouts Lloyd Hyman, Melvin Cooder, Joe Dunbar, Bobby Washington, Nathaniel Wright and Tony Creekmore. Backing a strong Defensive line were Jerome Giddens and Mark Matthews and at Defensive Backs were Carlton Thomas and Anthony Hampton.

Offensively the Baby Prexies were led by the John Ealey - Gary Harris combination which, accounted for 46 of the teams points. Running was also our game though with Edward Jordan, Jerome Giddens and Reginald Collins leading the way. A lot of credit for the success however must go to a sound line the stand outs in this Department were Issac Fort, Lloyd Hyman, Nathaniel Wright and Perry Outland.

The Wrestling team will be centered around a nucleus of District Contenders. The team is lead by Tim Bonds, Otis Baskerville, Jeremiah Farrow, and Junior Harris. Four of these men placed in the district last year and advanced to the Regional Competition, they were Tim Bonds, Steve Booker, Jeremiah Farrow, and Otis Baskerville. Baskerville has compiled a career record of 26-5-1 in regular season competition and has placed in each district tournament since his freshman year. Other returning lettermen are John Brown, Perry Outland, Richard Walker, and Scott Wiggins.

Also returning is Darnell Gause who has improved his time by as much as thirty seconds. Like Gause the whole team has worked real hard on their time and it paid off in the city meet where they placed four runners in the top fourteen. DEVOTED J.V. CHEERLEADERS WHOOP IT UP

Many people were under the impression that the Junior Varsity Cheerleaders were the "second string" of the Varsity Squad. But this was far from the truth. While it was a fact that the J.V. Cheerleaders all aspired to wear a Varsity uniform someday, it was also true that these girls worked extremely hard to keep a high level of Wilson spirit at all levels of athletics.

The J.V. Cheerleaders made banners, sold promotional items, and most importantly, cheered the P to victory throughout the football, basketball and wrestling season. Although they didn't always get the spotlight, as did their varsity counterparts, these girls realized that they were a very important part of the Wilson community.

TENNIS TEAM HAS CONSISTENT SEASON

The 1979 tennis team's starting line-up consisted of Billy Diggs, George Kozak, Leslie Marcus, and Mark Davis — all returning lettermen - plus David Rhoulac and Paul Wetherbee. Diggs won every single match but one during the regular season and paired with Kozak to do quite well in doubles also. He was a quarter-finalist in the district tournament and the pair made it to the semi-finals. Miss Marcus was the only girl in the district who competed.

In an effort to expand and broaden the athletic program here at Wilson, another sport is in the waiting for next year. Gymnastics is fast becoming a popular sport in the Southeastern District and next year Wilson will be competing with it. As an introduction into this sport an intramural program was started this year with great success. The response and participation was tremendous with a great deal learned, to act as a good building year as we anticipate next year. Some promising athletes are on the horizon to becoming significant figures in the world of gymnastics in years to come.

BASEBALL TEAM BREAKS EVEN

McGinley, Steve Hedgepeth, Carlton Nelson, Ross Owen, Glen Pizzanella, Reggie Riddick, and Mike Spinks.

Intently watching the play, Coach McGinley's grim expression sums up the situation.

Glen Pizzanella, Reggie Riddick, Chris Watson, Glenn Evans, and Kenny Matthews talk about having a party after the game.

The varsity baseball team finished the 1979 season 7 - 7 under the direction of pitchers Steve Hedgepeth and Glen Pizzanello. The team gave up few errors. Defensive stand-outs were Reggie Riddick on third base, Ross Owen as catcher, and Most Valuable Defensive Player Glen Evans.

Leading the Prexies at the plate were Glen Pizzanello, the recipient of the Doug Whitley Memorial Award, with a .383 batting average, Glen Evans with .333, Reggie Riddick with .275, and Kenny Matthews with .275.

Discussing strategy occupies the last few minutes before the game for Carlton Nelson and Kenny Matthews.

The baseball team has time to rest and joke around before a game.

The J.V. Baseball Team ended the season with a 2-8 record, winning against Oscar Smith and Manor. The J.V.'s were lead in the field by Mark Matthews, Mark Gitt, Junior Harris, Donald Don McGinley, and David Johnston. The leading hitters were Perry Outland, Charles Burton, Junior Harris, and Charles Riverbark.

THE LADY SLUGGERS

Carol Parker shows Kathy Rowley and Mrs. Person her swing.

Below, Mrs. Person is amazed with Kathy's enthusiasm.

Although the girls lacked experience, they kept their sense of pride as the season moved on. Mrs. Person felt that her team had the will power it takes to become one of the district's best yet. There were many newcomers to the team but they all shaped up nicely and proved that they were not amateurs, but almost as good as professionals.

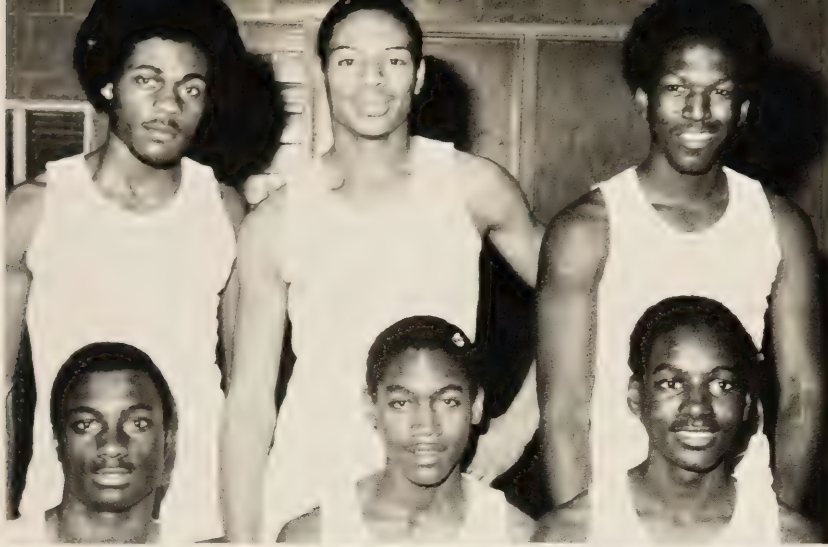

FRANKLIN GOES TO STATE

Rodgers, Harris, and Martin proved to be the best that Wilson had. Below, Jeffrey Hendricks pushes for the finish line.

The Wilson track team proved to have some of the best athletes in the state last season. Curtis Franklin, a graduating Senior, placed in the state competition. The team did a good job and everyone participated equally. They huffed and puffed until the finish line was in sight and then worked harder to get there before the next man, even if he was a fellow team member. The practices were long and hard, but proved to be rewarding in many aspects. Track is to some degree an individual sport and each member puts in only what he expects to get out of the sport.

MARK, GET SET, GO!!

Karen Parker finds practice breath-taking.

The Girls track Team accomplished a great deal last season with two girls qualifying for regionals and one for state. The team was small and each girl had to participate in several events. This year with their experience and hard work they should accomplish even more. They finished the season with a 1-6 record. Elsie Hill qualified for Regionals in the 400 and 880 run by placing second in the District meet. Althea Council, captain of the team, qualified for the Regionals in the 220 yard dash.

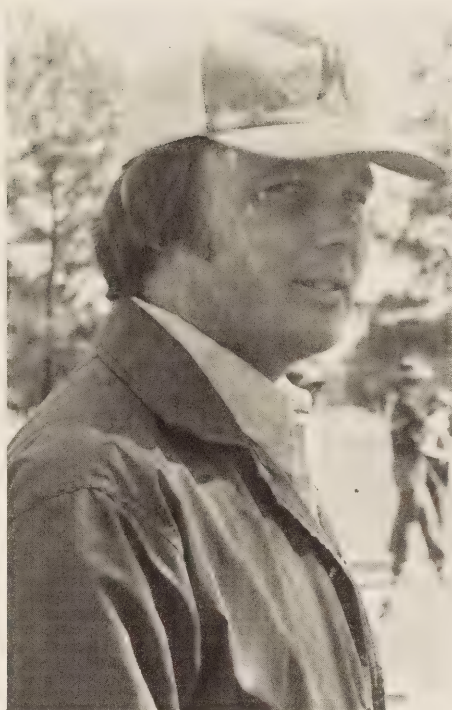

GOLF TEAM HAS DISAPPOINTING YEAR

Far right (bottom) Harry Marshall watches putt drop into hole while above Keven Bryant watches camera.

Coach Roberts looks pleased with that shot.

Leon Bryant shows his keen concentration.

The 1979 Varsity Golf Team compiled a disappointing 1 - 8 record and finished tenth in the district tournament. Leading the way for Wilson was junior Ricky Fugate who won many matches and qualified for the Eastern Regional Tournament. Fugate represented Wilson well but missed qualifying for state. Other players on the team were Harry Marshall, Phil Hedgepeth, Leon Bryant, and Kevin Bryant.

SOCCER ANYONE?

Kevin Bryant looks for somewhere to place the ball.

Jeff Greiner and Paul Bailey run for it!

Doug Cabacar practices his trots.

Tommy Bravo makes his way to the goal.

Clockwise: During homcoming, majorettes Julie Smith, Carrie Thomas, and Lynette Mills perform for the crowd. Junior Harris and his opponent from Indian River shake hands before they begin to wrestle. Student teacher John Tobin and artist-in-residence Laura Quarberg demonstrate a printing process to Leroy Taylor, Tanya Williams, and Hattie Perry. Getting ready to come down the stairs, exchange student Roger Gonzalez poses for the camera. Roland Elliott should be looking at the copy, not at the keys.

REVIEWS REVIEWS REVIEW

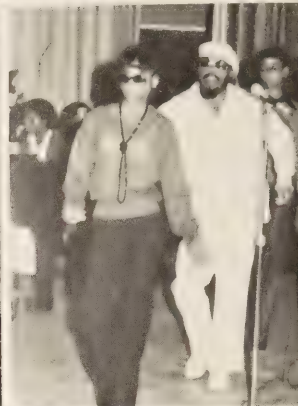

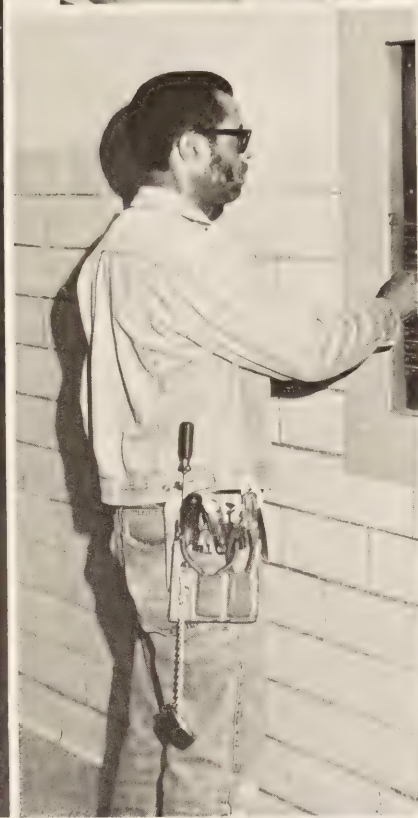

Clockwise: Concentrating intensely, Micheal Mills puts the finishing touches on his painting. A view of the school from Willett Drive. Tayra Noll, a participant in intramural gymnastics, performs an "eagle" on the uneven parallel bars. Seated in her office, Mrs. Sweet prepares the day's lessons. The front steps of the auditorium provide a relaxed atmosphere for Mr. Joyner. Mrs. McClintock, the school dietician, and Mrs. Bazemore prepare the day's lunch.

Memories of these high school years
To our Prexie eyes will always bring tears.
But we know deep down that wherever we roam,
Wilson High School will always be home.
